Wednesday, November 8 1704

From the Amst. Cour.& Leid.Gaz. dated Nov. 11.

Ratisbon, November 3.

THE Town of Straubingen, which was very much damag'd by the Bombs of the Imperialists, has pursuant to the Articles concluded between the Governour and General Herbeville, receiv'd a strong Garrison of Imperialists; the Bavarians having first march'd out, with their Arms and Baggage, and pass'd the Iser. The Electorefs of Bavaria has signify'd to General Herbeville; that she has sent Orders to the Garrisons of Passau and of its Castle call'd the Oberhaus, and to those of other Places on the Danube quite up to Ratisbon, to withdraw out of the same. 'Tis reported likewise, that the Electorefs has offer'd to yield up to the Emperor the rest of the fortified Places of Bavaria, and to disband the Forces she has on Foot, provided his Imperial Majesty will promise (among other things) not to quarter more than 25000 Men this Winter in her Country.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 8.

Dantzick, Oct. 16. The new Queen of Poland went from Elbing some days ago, and with her the Mother of King Stanislaus her Husband, and several other Ladies, to go to Konigsberg the Capital of the Ducal Prussia; where she is at present, and while she resides there will be incognito. The Cardinal Primate, and the Marshal of the Confederacy, who were here some time, are also gone to Konigsberg. King Augustus lately sent a Summons to the Magistrates of this City, commanding them to deliver up to him the Cardinal Primate, and the other Confederates that retir'd hither; to renounce the Treaty made between them and the King of Sweden; and to pay him double the Contributions they paid to the King of Sweden: threatening in case of Refusal to bombard this City, and lay waste the Territory belonging to it. To which our Magistrates have return'd Answer, that the Cardinal Primate and those who came with him are gone from hence; and as for the other Demands, that they would call an Assembly of our Regents to consider of them.

From the Brussels Gazette. dated Nov. 7.

Dantzick, October 21. Our Regents have written a Letter to King Augustus, in which they represent to him; that they cannot comply with his Demands; that the Kings of Poland his Predecessors having permitted this City to enjoy quietly its ancient Rights and Liberties, they hoped his Majesty will not offer to infringe them; especially considering that notwithstanding this City is indeed a Member of the Republick of Poland, yet it is a free City, and acknowledged as such by all forreign Potentates. We expect the Pope's Nuncio here, he having thought best to retire from Warsaw upon Intelligence of the March of the Swedish Army towards that City. Letters from Livonia inform us, that Major General Frolich, Governour of Riga, apprehending the Muscovites will lay Siege to that Place, has taken Care to get in Stores of Provisions sufficient for above 6 Months.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 11.

Berlin, Nov. 1. The 28th of last Month, the Lord Raby, the English Minister, entertain'd magnificently at Dinner the Queen of Prussia and the Electorefs of Hanover. The 31st being the Birthday of her said Majesty, was celebrated at Lutzburg with great Solemnity. 'Tis currently reported here, that the Duke of Marlborough will make a Tour hither, and that he will also make a Visit to the Court of Hanover, before he goes to the Hague. They write from Warsaw the 24th of October, that the King of Poland, upon Advice the Swedes were advancing towards Pultousk, broke up from thence, and passing the Vistula march'd to Warsaw, in order both to favour the Siege of Posen, and to dispute the Passage of the Swedes over the Vistula. One of the chief Magistrates of Dantzick is suddenly expected here, and from hence is to proceed to the Hague, to negotiate some Affairs of that City.

From the Leid.Gaz. & Amst. Cour. dated Nov. 11.

Warsaw, Oct. 27. King Augustus with his Court and several Senators of his Party continue here. The King of Sweden is at present at Praag on the other side of the Vistula over against this City, having with him the new King Stanislaus and Prince Alexander Sobieski. His said Swedish Majesty not being able to pass the Vistula here, because of the Precautions taken by King Augustus to prevent it, order'd part of his Troops yesterday to march down towards the Mouth of the Bug to endeavour to pass thereabouts: But King Augustus has likewise sent a great Detachment of his Army to observe and oppose them. The Swedes will find it very difficult to pass this River any where between this and Thorn, for so far downward King Augustus has caus'd all the Vessels and Boats that could be found to be burnt. The Bishop of Cracow has had a long Conference, within these few days, with King Augustus, and laid before him a Proposal, consisting of 6 Articles, (the Import of which is yet a Secret,) upon which the House of Lubomirski is willing to come over to his Majesty's Party. The Swedes garrison'd in the Town of Posen make a very brave Defence, but if his Polish Majesty can maintain his Ground, and keep the King of Sweden from marching to the Relief of that Place, 'tis to be hoped General Brandt, who attacks it with great Vigour, will not be long before he takes it. A Party of Saxons have taken and brought hither, the Secretary of the pretended King Stanislaus; about whom several Letters were found, directed to the pretended Queen, the Cardinal Primate, and other Persons of Quality of that Party, which Letters afford great Light into the Designs of the King of Sweden. 'Tis advis'd from Saxony, that the Princes James and Constantine Sobieski, are remov'd from the Castle of Leipfich to Dresden.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Nov. 11.

Breslau, Oct. 29. Letters from Poland tell us, the Plague

Plague rages in several Provinces of that Kingdom, and that a great Number of the Inhabitants of Lemberg in particular have been swept away by it.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 11.

Dresden, Nov. 5. We have Advice that the Troops before Posen, commanded by General Brand, have receiv'd 16 Pieces of Cannon, 8 Mortars, and 400 Bombs; have been joyn'd by a Battalion of Grenadiers led by Lieutenant Colonel Nehmitz; and that they expect the rest of the Artillery and a further Reinforcement of Troops from this Country; That in the mean time they have made a considerable Breach in the Body of the Place; that the 26th of last Month the Miners had made their Lodgment; and that unless the Place were very speedily reliev'd, the Garrison would be oblig'd to yield themselves Prisoners at Discretion.

Breslau, Nov. 2. King Augustus has quitted his Posts on the Vistula, and is marching with his Army towards Posen: The King of Sweden's Army continues on the other side of the Vistula. To day pass'd through this Place a Courier who reported, that General Brand has taken Posen; Of which we wait the Confirmation and Particulars.

The most Excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chewed or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of Business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Seaton, &c. are ineffectual; In Rheumatism, Gouts, Kings-Evil, Leprosies, Red or Pimpley Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetning the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above said for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end as Salivation in many cases, and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flatfish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's a Bookfeller at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. per Box, with Directions.
